In a small neighborhood of a traditional Lebanese coastal town, Leba, a music instructor, marries his childhood sweetheart Lara. To the dismay of his family, neighbours, and friends, Lara is pregnant for the third time. It is a boy, who has Down syndrome. Unlike his father, however, Ghadi is prone to making loud, uncontrollable noises that can be heard by everyone down below, to the point where he is eventually classified as a major disturbance.

Details are also available on Embassy's website - www.nicosia.mfa.gov.lb

Ghadi transmits a universal message of tolerance and acceptance of the other; in a society where gossip has been erected into law, and where privacy is in fact shared by the entire community

1 hour and 40 minutes of sheer comedy

A brilliant script and a simple and honest plot keep you on the edge of your seat in anticipation and excitement
